

REVISED FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: April 16, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 1666 - SB 1706 (REVISED)

On March 6, 1995, we issued a fiscal note on this bill which indicated:

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in first year expenditures of $123,155 of which $114,685 will be state funds, $1,831 will be local government funds and $6,639 will be federal funds. The above estimate represents expenditures for 51 assistant district attorneys impacted by this bill.

This estimate was based upon information received from the District Attorneys General Conference, the number of full-time assistant district attorneys general that will be eligible for noncontributory provisions of the Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System extended by this bill has been reduced from 51 assistant district attorneys general to 35 assistant district attorneys general since last year.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill, based upon additional information furnished by the District Attorneys General Conference and the Retirement Division of the Department of Treasury on April 12, 1996, is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of $98,200 of which $92,400 will be state funds and $5,800 will be federal funds.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
